The selected candidate will be hired through a public administration contract for an indefinite period, in the category this position is opened, with an experimental period of five years. The present call is aimed at PhD holders with high research potential and ability who wish to enter a university teaching career, complying as well with the provisions of Article 6, paragraph 5, of Decree-Law no. 57/2016, of August 29, as amended by Law no. 57/2017, of July 19.

According to the March 31st joint Decree No. 373/2000 from the State Reform and Public Administration Minister and the Equality Minister it is mandatory that:

In compliance with paragraph h) of the Constitution Article 9, the Public Administration, as an employer, actively promotes an equal opportunity between men and women policy in what concerns access to work and professional progression, taking particular care to prevent all forms of discrimination.

This means that no candidate may be given special privileges, be benefitted or suffer prejudice, in any way, or be deprived of any right, by reason of parentage, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital or family status, financial circumstances, educational attainment level, origin or social class, genetic inheritance, reduced ability to work, handicap, chronic illness, nationality, ethnic or racial origin, land of origin, language, religion, political or ideological convictions or union membership.

In accordance with ECDU Articles 37 to 51 and other applicable legislation, and as required by the RegULisboa article 8, the following requirements shall apply:

I – Authorization Order

This notice was authorized by Professor Luís Manuel dos Anjos Ferreira, Rector of the University of Lisbon, on 15th April 2025, after confirmation of adequate budget provision existence and that the position is planned and not occupied in the FCUL teaching staff list.

II - Workplace

Faculdade de Ciências da Universidade de Lisboa, located at Campo Grande, 1749-016 Lisboa.

The Assistant Professor to be hired will integrate the Department of Geology and will carry out teaching activity. The research activity will be hosted by the R&D Unit associated with the department, namely Instituto Dom Luíz (IDL).

III - Admission requirements

Eligible candidates:

1) Holders of a PhD degree, in compliance with Article 41-A of the ECDU.

1.1) Holders of a PhD degree obtained abroad must have equivalence or recognition or degree registration proving that it is equivalent to the one awarded by Portuguese universities;

1.2) Candidates who do not yet hold the equivalence or recognition, or degree registration, should apply for recognition of the doctoral degree, in accordance with Law no. 66/2018, of August 16, as currently worded, and this recognition must be obtained by the deadline that will be granted to the candidate selected to occupy the position, to hand the documentation proving that he/she meets the requirements for admission to this call, and is consequently eligible to sign an employment contract in public functions.

2) Proficiency in Portuguese language, both written and spoken.

Candidates of foreign nationality, except those from Portuguese-speaking countries, must, when applying, submit a formal statement that they will demonstrate, within one year of signing a contract, a proficiency in Portuguese (written and spoken) that will allow them to teach Portuguese students without any communication limitations.

3) Failure to submit any of the required documents for this application, within the deadline and under the terms indicated in Chapters VIII, IX and X of this public notice, determines the non-admittance of the application, which shall be object of analysis and decision by the Director of FCUL, prior to the Jury's deliberation on absolute merit.

IV - Admission criteria based on absolute merit

Once the applications have been duly completed, the admission of the candidates in absolute merit will depend on:

1) An overall CV that the jury deems revealing scientific merit, research capacity and previously developed teaching activity compatible with the Physical Chemistry disciplinary area, and compatible with an Assistant Professor position; and

2) that the candidate has one Q1/Q2 article in the SCIMAGO index per year, on average, in the disciplinary area in which the competition is open, of which at least 1/3, rounded up to the next whole number, must be in articles published in Q1 journals in the aforementioned index, since January 1st 2020, or since the year of their doctorate if it took place after 1st January 2020.

A candidate is approved in absolute merit if approved by an absolute majority of the voting members of the jury, in a justified nominal vote, where abstentions are not allowed.

V - Evaluation and ranking of relative merit, their weights and final valuation system

The candidates approved in absolute merit will be ranked according to the selection criteria described below, under the terms of No. 6 of Article 50 of the ECDU, of No. 4 of Article 5 and Article 11 of the RegULisboa, and of Articles 8 and 9 of RegFCUL. The ranking of candidates in relative merit will be based on a weighted sum of points in a scale 0-100 (being 0 the minimum and 100 the maximum), according to the evaluation parameters discriminated below.

The evaluation consist of the Pedagogical component, the Research component, the Other Activities component, and the merit of the scientific project. These evaluation components should be compatible with the area put up for tender, and appropriate for an Assistant Professor position. Their corresponding weights are:

- A) Pedagogical component – 10%;
- B) Research component – 75%;
- C) Other activities component – 5%;
- D) Merit of the scientific project to be developed by the candidate in the area of the tender – 10%.

The evaluation of each parameter will consider the following aspects:

A) Pedagogical component (10%)

- 1) Teaching: teaching and/or coordination of curricular units related to the disciplinary area of the call: diversity, pedagogical practices and, if available, results of student's surveys on those teaching units.
- 2) Pedagogical materials: quality and diversity of the candidate's pedagogical publications, computer applications, experimental prototypes, texts and teaching materials.
- 3) Pedagogical innovation: promotion of new pedagogical initiatives: solid and coherent proposals for the creation and/or reformulation of curricular units, implementation or reinforcement of laboratory infrastructures or facilities (experimental and/or computational), conception/implementation or restructuring of groups of curricular units or study plans.
- 4) Academic supervision: supervision experience of doctoral, master and undergraduate students: number, quality, scope and scientific/technological impact of publications, theses, dissertations and final reports. Awards and international recognition must be highlighted. Orientation, co-orientation and other mentoring activities should be clearly described.
- 5) Other: relevant work and/or professional experience, outside the academic environment, in the area of the call.

B) Research component (75%)

- 1) Publications: books and/or book chapters, articles in scientific journals and in conference proceedings (as author or co-author), characterized in terms of type of publication, impact factor and number of citations. The quality of the selected publications should be considered.
- 2) Projects: coordination and participation in scientific projects, obtained in competitive calls, in national and international programs. The capacity to attract competitive funding. The challenges addressed and the results obtained (scientific and/or technological and/or innovation) should be considered.

- 3) Innovation: authorship and co-authorship of patents, technologies, models and industrial designs. The nature, territorial scope, level of technology and obtained results, as well as entrepreneurial initiatives with significant participation should be considered.
- 4) Autonomy and leadership: participation and coordination of initiatives to create or reinforce experimental and/or computational laboratory infrastructures to support research. Coordination and leadership of research teams.
- 5) Recognition: awards granted by scientific societies or obtained at scientific meetings, editorial and reviewing activities in scientific journals; peer reviewing of programs, projects, grants, and prizes; coordination or participation in scientific or organizing committees of scientific events; invited lectures in scientific meetings or seminars presented at other universities; membership of scientific societies of competitive admission and other distinctions.

C) Other activities component (5%)

- 1) Outreach: articles in national and international journals and conferences, and other scientific and technological publications with professional and societal impact.
- 2) R&D Services: activities involving the economic system and/or business environment and/or the public sector (type of participation, size, diversity, technological intensity, innovation). Participation and coordination of scientific and technological outreach initiatives for the scientific community (organization of meetings, conferences, ...), within the pre-university education system (students and teachers), the media, the general public, associations and outreach entities, highlighting their nature, scientific and technological intensity, and results.
- 3) Institutional positions: individual positions in university management bodies (rectorships, school management, ...) or as qualified representative in management bodies of the scientific and technological system.
- 4) Scientific and/or academic positions: participation in collective bodies (Scientific or Pedagogical Councils, ...). Individual management positions in departments, research units, course coordination, disciplinary areas, sections. Positions and temporary tasks of scientific and/or pedagogical nature that have been assigned by the competent management bodies. Participation in collective panels that evaluate applications to scientific programs, academic examination boards, among others.
- 5) Other positions: positions in scientific or professional organizations of national or international scope.

D) Scientific Project (10%)

- 1) In the scientific project, the candidate should describe his research plan, within 3 to 5 years, framing it on his career development, particularly in the context of FCUL, namely within the scope of the FCUL R&D unit, IDL.
- 2) The evaluation of the scientific project will focus on: a) quality and adequacy to the reality of FCUL; b) contributions to the strategic project of FCUL's R&D unit, IDL.

The scientific project should have no more than 25000 characters, including spaces.

VI - Curricular Enhancement

The curricular enhancement will enhance the compliance of curricular elements with the Specific Domains in Mineralogy, Inorganic geochemistry, Metallogeny and Geochemical prospecting.

Ranking of candidates

Each panel member produces a list of candidates ranked by decreasing order of merit. The panel members vote individually based on their own ranked list of candidates.

In accordance with article 20 of RegULisboa, the panel members vote for the first place, then for the second place, and so on, until the ranking of all candidates admitted in absolute merit is completed. In each vote, the panel decisions are made by an absolute majority of votes.

Once the selection criteria have been applied, the selection panel prepares a final ranking list of candidates.

VII - Public hearings

- 1) Whenever necessary, the panel may decide, by an absolute majority of votes, on its first meeting, to set up public hearings on equal terms for all the candidates admitted based on absolute merit, to clarify some points related with submitted documents.
- 2) If public hearings are necessary, they will occur between the 20th and the 50th days after the meeting for admission based on absolute merit, and all candidates shall be informed, at least 5 days before, when and where they will take place.
- 3) For public hearings meetings, both panel members and candidates can participate by videoconference.
