Public Notice - International Selection Procedure for PhD Scientific Researcher Recruitment (Initial Stage Researcher)

FCiências.ID/2021/DL57/cE3c/2

FCiências.ID - Associação para a Investigação e Desenvolvimento de Ciências, through its Chairman of the Board of Directors, hereby announces the opening of an international call for the recruitment of a scientific researcher with a PhD degree, in the framework of Project FRISCO: managing Fire-induced RISks of water quality Contamination, reference PCIF/MPG/0044/2018, funded by Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia, from national funds, in the form of an indefinite duration fixed-term employment contract on an exclusive regime, according to the Portuguese Labour Code and Decree-Law No. 57/2016, of August 29th, as amended by Law No. 57/2017, of July 19th.

I - Admission Requirements

Portuguese nationals, foreign and stateless persons may submit applications to this selection procedure, provided they hold a doctoral degree¹ in Earth and Environmental Sciences, Physical Geography, or similar scientific areas, and fully comply with the following requirements:

- a) Demonstrated scientific experience (namely through joining research projects and first author publications in international journals) in the areas of Earth and Environmental Sciences, Physical Geography, or similar scientific areas.
- b) Demonstrated experience (namely through first author publications in international journals) in geographic information processing and in manipulating and analysing datasets related with Earth and Environmental Sciences, Physical Geography, or similar scientific areas.

¹ Please note that Degrees obtained in foreign countries need a Portuguese Recognition issued by a Portuguese high degree Institution, according to the Decree-Law nr. 66/2018, of August 16th and the Ministerial Order nr. 33/2019, of January 25th. The presentation of such Recognition is mandatory for contract signature. More information can be obtained in: <https://www.dges.gov.pt/en/pagina/degree-and-diploma-recognition>.

II. Applicable Law

1. Decree-Law No. 57/2016, of August 29th (RCD), in the wording conferred on it by Law No. 57/2017, of July 19th (RCD);
2. Portuguese Labour Code, as approved by Law No. 7/2009, of February 12th, in its current version (CT);

4. Administrative Procedure Code, as published in Decree-Law No. 4/2015, of January 7th, in its current version (CPA).

III. Work Plan

The objectives of the work plan are to collaborate with the FRISCO project team in achieving the following tasks:

- 1) mapping hydrological connectivity in burnt areas, based on topographic analysis and remote sensing (task 2);
- 2) assess the impact of wildfires on water quality, through the statistical analysis of historical datasets, and relate it with fire characteristics: severity, changes to hydrological connectivity, burnt landcover, and post-fire meteorology, amongst others (task 3);
- 3) develop a post-fire contamination index, based on the aforementioned analysis, which can be rapidly calculated after a wildfire event (task 4);

4) develop a best practices manual for burnt area management, based on the results of the previous tasks combined with the application of a fire spread model (task 5);

5) project reporting and dissemination, namely writing scientific publications and organizing public seminars.

IV. Composition of the Jury

In accordance to article 13 of the RCD, the members of the jury are:

- President – Doctor João Pedro Nunes;
- 1st Member of the jury – Doctor Luís Dias;

VIII. Evaluation of applications

1. Failure to comply with the Admission Requirements implies the non-admission of candidates in absolute merit.
2. According to article 5 of the RCD, the selection of the candidates approved in absolute merit will rely on the evaluation of their scientific and curricular achievements in the last five years, taking into consideration the quality and relevance of the scientific production, and the professional activity indicated as more relevant by the candidate, for the project tasks described above.
3. The final classification of candidates is given on a scale of 0 to 100%.
4. Evaluation of the relative merit of candidates, will rely on the following criteria:

- a) Participation in relevant scientific projects in the scientific areas of project FRISCO, i.e. hydrology, water resources and wildfires, or with tasks which include geographic information processing and manipulating and analysing datasets – 20%;
 - b) Scientific publications in the scientific areas of project FRISCO, or with work which includes geographic information processing and manipulating and analysing dataset – 40%;
 - c) Pedagogical and outreach activities, in particular in the context of promoting scientific practices, organization of courses, seminars and conferences, in the Earth and Environmental Sciences, Physical Geography or similar areas – 20%;
 - d) Motivation letter, detailing how the candidate's capacities and professional background are useful for the foreseen workplan – 20%.
5. The jury may decide to interview the three best ranked candidates in criteria a) to d) of paragraph 4), for clarifications and improved explanations of curricular elements. If there is an interview, the sum of the classifications in criteria a) to d) will correspond to 90% of the final classification and the interview will correspond to 10%.
 6. The jury shall deliberate by means of a roll-call vote based on the evaluation criteria.
 7. Minutes of the jury meetings are drawn up, summarizing all relevant elements considered by jury members, as well as their individual votes and justifications.
 8. After completion of the evaluation process, the jury will draw up a ranking of successful candidates with their classifications.
 9. Hiring will be decided by the Chairman of the Board of Directors of FCIências.ID, based on the final jury recommendation.
 10. The evaluation results will be published on the website of the FCIências.ID ("Concursos" tab). The candidates will be individually notified of the evaluation results by e-mail sent to the address indicated in the "Personal Data" section of the submitted form.
 11. With the notification referred to in paragraph 10, the hearing phase of interested parties referred to in Article 121 et seq. of the CPA will begin, and last for ten working days.
 12. The possible pronouncement of the candidate in a prior hearing must be addressed to the President of the jury and submitted in writing to concursos@fciencias-id.pt. The President of the jury will convene a jury's meeting to produce the final decision, within thirty working days.
 13. Within five working days of the final jury decision, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of FCIências.ID will approve it and the candidates will be notified.
 14. The communication between FCIências.ID (concursos@fciencias-id.pt) and the candidates will be electronic and will comply with the following rules:
 - a) At the time of electronic submission of any document - namely in the case of paragraph no 11 - the candidates must generate proof of "sent message".
 - b) FCIências.ID will send an email message acknowledging documents received to the email address used by the candidates, within two working days.
 - c) In case of absence of a confirmation receipt by FCIências.ID – showing the possibility of technical problems that should neither be the responsibility of the candidate nor FCIências.ID - the candidates should contact FCIências.ID, with the proof referred to in point (a), to ensure delivery and proper receipt of the documents concerned.

IX. Compliance with public policies

1. FCIências.ID actively promotes a policy of non-discrimination and equal access, so that no candidate can be privileged, benefited, disadvantaged or deprived of any right or exempt from any duty due to, inter alia, ancestry, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family status, economic situation, education, social origin or condition, genetic heritage, reduced working capacity, disability, chronic illness, nationality, ethnic origin or race, territory of origin, language, religion, political or ideological beliefs and trade union membership.
2. Under the terms of D.L. No. 29/2001, of February 3, a disabled candidate has a preference in equal classification, which prevails over any other legal preference.
