

Public Notice
Applications to the Position of Dean of the Faculdade de Ciências da Universidade de Lisboa (FCUL)

The Faculdade de Ciências da Universidade de Lisboa (FCUL) announces the opening of the public procedure for Dean.

The Dean is elected by the School Council of FCUL and is the institution's governing body and external representative.

Any professor or researcher from FCUL, or from another organic unit of the Universidade de Lisboa, or from other national or foreign higher-education or research institutions, can apply to the Position of Dean of FCUL.

The Dean must be an academic personality of undeniable prestige, with experience in coordinating teaching and research activities and with a strategic vision suited to the modernization and development of FCUL.

Applications are to be submitted until June 9, 2022, in Portuguese, on the application platform available at <https://ciencias.ulisboa.pt/eleicao-diretor>, supported by the following documents in .pdf file format:

- i. Curriculum Vitae of the applicant,
- ii. Declaration of eligibility and compatibility with the law and the Faculty's statutes,
- iii. The Action Programme to be undertaken, including an analysis identifying the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats to the development of the Faculty, as well as presenting the measures and policies to be implemented, the means necessary for their implementation and the monitoring/follow-up mechanisms.

The powers of the Director, the legal and statutory regime, as well as the eligibility conditions can be consulted at <https://ciencias.ulisboa.pt/eleicao-diretor>
